1. PREMISES

These terms and conditions apply to the software "Navigate Pro" (hereinafter called "The Product" or "Product") and constitute the contract between Info Studi (owner of the Product) and the licensee (subject to which the use of the Product is granted).

If you do not agree to these terms, you must not install or use the software. If you comply with these license terms, you will have the rights listed below.

2. DEFINITIONS

- "Licensee" means the natural or legal entity (and its subsidiaries) who has accepted these license terms.
- "Subsidiary" means a legal person which owns one of the parties, is owned by one of the parties or is under the common ownership of one of the parties.
- "Property" means possession of over 50%.
- "Partner" means the natural or legal person who:
  - is the Dynamics NAV/BC Partner of Record of the License;
  - has signed the Reseller Agreement, and for this reason;
  - is granted to re-sell the license, buying it from the owner and selling it to the Licensee (End User Customer(s)).

3. INSTALLATION AND RIGHTS OF USE

Licensee may install an unlimited number of copies of the Product, however, he may use the Product only if he is an authorized user of Dynamics 365 Business Central software or service.

3.1 No Liability in Case of Changes

You must not modify the software, not even to use it for internal commercial purposes if you have received it in the source code format. Info Studi is not obliged to provide technical or other support for changes made by the licensee, a partner or a third party. Info Studi does not formulate any declaration, endorsement, warranty or assurance regarding the suitability of the software for the activity of the licensee or the suitability of the partner or any third parties to create modifications or implement such modifications or software, or about the fact that changes created, implemented, supported and / or managed by the licensee or by third parties satisfy the business needs of the licensee or function properly with the software. Info Studi and its partners are independent entities and Info Studi is neither responsible nor bound by any actions carried out by these business partners.

3.2 Additional Features

Info Studi may provide additional features to the Product. Other licensing conditions and additional costs may be applied.

3.4 Complex Software

The Product is a complex computer software. Its performance will depend on the hardware platform and the interaction and configuration of the licensee's software, as well as other factors. The software is neither fault tolerant nor free from errors, conflicts or interruptions.

4. SCOPE OF VALIDITY OF THE LICENSE

The software is not sold, but is licensed. This contract grants the Licensee only certain rights to use the software. Info Studi reserves all other rights. Within limits allowed by the applicable law or by any further written contract stipulated with Info Studi, the licensee may use the software exclusively in the manner expressly granted in this contract. In doing so, you must comply with any technical limitations in the software that allow licensee to use it only in certain ways.

Licensee may use the software solely for internal business purposes. Licensee cannot:

- bypass any technical limitations of the Product;
- reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble the Product, except and only to the extent that such activities are expressly permitted by the Product itself or applicable law, notwithstanding this limitation;
- make a larger number of copies of the Product than specified in this contract or permitted by applicable law, despite this limitation;
- publish the Product to allow duplication by others;
- grant the Product for hire, lease or loan;
- use the Product to provide hosting of commercial services.

Licensee's rights to use the software are perpetual or limited in time depending on the type of purchasing (On Premises or On Cloud), but may be revoked in case of non-compliance with the terms of this contract by the licensee or its subsidiaries. The rights to access the software do not authorize the Licensee to implement any Info Studi patent or other intellectual property in the software or devices that access the software.

5. BACKUP COPY

Licensee may make multiple copies of the Product for backup, development, and trial purposes, provided that such copies are not used for production and that development is for internal use only. Backup copies may be hosted by third parties on behalf of Licensee.

6. TRANSFER OF THE LICENSE

Licensee may transfer the Product to third parties only after obtaining written consent from Info Studi. In case of authorization, additional costs may be charged for the transfer of software to third parties.

7. DOCUMENTATION

Any person who has valid access to Licensee's computer or internal network will be able to duplicate and use the documentation for internal reference purposes.

8. TECHNICAL SUPPORT SERVICES

Info Studi provides corrective, evolutionary, ordinary, and extraordinary maintenance for the Product that might be rolled-out as software upgrades or patches that may be optional or mandatory to install. Info Studi reserves the unilateral right to define if, when and how to create and distribute software upgrades and patches.

Info Studi provides technical support services for the software not directly to Licensee but through the reference Partner.

9. LOCALIZATION AND TRANSLATION

Info Studi provides the Product in English, even if it is able to use texts in the language in which Licensee's Dynamics NAV/BC is configured.

10. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This contract, including the terms for supplements, updates, Internet-based services and technical support services used by the licensee, constitutes the entire Agreement relating to software and technical support services.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND EXCLUSION OF DAMAGES

Licensee may request from Info Studi and its suppliers only compensation for direct damages within the limit of the amount actually paid by the Licensee for the software. Licensee may not claim compensation for any other damages, including consequential, special, indirect or accidental damage or loss of profits. This limitation applies to any matter relating to: (i) software, (ii) services, (iii) content (including code) on Internet sites or (iv) third party programs and complaints about non-compliance contract, breach of warranty, objective liability, negligence, loss of data, damage to records or data, loss of goodwill, loss due to business interruption or other tort, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. This limitation also applies if

- the repair, replacement or refund of the software does not fully compensate the Licensee for any losses or
- Info Studi has been informed or should have been informed of the possibility of such damages occurring.
